Trustee Porter spoke to the setback requirements for electronic signs and proposed that the ordinance be amended to provide an exemption for current businesses with existing signs that would allow them to add an electronic sign without requiring a 10 ft. setback for the sign.

Trustee Porter opined that the 10 ft. setback requirement limited current businesses from investing in marketing their business. Village Clerk Corral Sepúlveda noted that years ago when the electronic signs were considered extensive discussion was had on the concern that not having a 10 ft. setback for electronic signs could pose a driving hazard by distracting motorists and requested more information. Further discussion took place on these two points.

Trustee Roberts expressed concern in having the sandwich boards approved.

Village Clerk Corral Sepúlveda inquired on having a permit requirement for “Going Out of Business Sales” signs.

Read remarks in remembrance of Martin Luther King, Jr. He noted the impact it made on him as a 15 year old and the current whitewashing of his legacy. He noted his bravery in speaking to issues such as police brutality and how he challenged powerful leaders such as Richard J. Daley, Edgar Hoover, and Richard Nixon. He paralleled the experiences of police violence during Martin Luther King’s lifetime to the today’s experiences of Philander Castile, Mike Brown, Alton Sterling and others. He expressed that he believed that Martin Luther King would align himself with the Black Lives Matter Movement and that we needed more to be interested in justice than acceptance.

Trustee Porter spoke to Martin Luther King championing social justice and economic justice that challenged unfair labor, wages, and hiring practices. He spoke to the lack of black employees in the Village and the need for integration in the Village’s workforce.

Trustee Porter noted Martin Luther King’s courage in opposing the Vietnam War and the failure to support black veterans. Trustee Porter spoke to the death of Martin Luther King Jr. being due to gun violence. He reflected on the cancer of guns in America and how America was not overly disturbed by it as long as it was confined to urban ghettos.

Trustee Porter reflected that Martin Luther King, Jr. would have taken issue with the motto “Make America Great Again,” but rather would proclaim “Together, we can make America Better”. He noted his hope that this would direct the efforts of the Village and the country.
